

Global icons take over Cirkusbygningen: The Jacksons and La Toya Jackson for an exclusive evening in Copenhagen

On 6 May 2026, three members of one of the world's most influential music families will come together for an exclusive evening of personal stories, a three-course dinner and a live concert at Cirkusbygningen in Copenhagen.

Jackie and Marlon Jackson of The Jacksons, along with La Toya Jackson, will appear in the historic Circus Hall, inviting guests to experience both the people and the music up close.

“I am very much looking forward to the event and can hardly wait. I am excited and look forward to seeing you all at my brothers’ concert, The Jacksons, on 6 May at the iconic Cirkusbygningen in Copenhagen. It will be a wonderful experience. Let us all enjoy a truly splendid evening,” says La Toya Jackson.

During the event, the family will share stories about life as part of one of the world's most remarkable music dynasties – about fame, legacy and decades in the spotlight. The evening will culminate in a live concert featuring classics that have defined generations.

“Music that is usually experienced in the biggest arenas takes on a completely different intensity beneath the dome of the Circus Hall. The contrast between the grand scale and the intimate setting makes this evening truly unique,” says Christian Sunn, CEO of Cirkusbygningen.

The event will take place in the iconic Circus Hall with table seating and a three-course dinner beneath the historic dome. Approximately 800 tickets will be available for sale.

Ticket sales are now open.

About Cirkusbygningen

Cirkusbygningen is one of Copenhagen’s most iconic buildings and a historic venue with a special place in the city’s cultural life. Beneath its distinctive dome and inside the atmospheric Circus Hall, experiences are created where history, atmosphere and intimacy come together.

The venue is known for creating a unique setting for shows, conversations, dinners and live experiences with a more intimate character than one would normally associate with international names and large-scale stage productions.
